Lincoln-Way Musicians Make Sweep Of Class A Contest

Lincoln-Way High School has again won the musical sweepstakes for Class A schools in Area II. The final competition will not be held until April 15 when schools will enter bands and choruses but Lincoln-Way doesn't have to depend on the points it makes there. It has enough now as a result of its showing in the annual area solo and ensemble contest at which it was host last Saturday.

At the close of the contests conducted Saturday for Class A and Class AA schools, Lincoln-Way was in first place in Class A with 174 points. Its closest competitor, Joliet East, has 118 points but plans to enter only its band in the finals next month. A superior rating for a band counts 20 points so at the conclusion of the finals the most points Joliet East could have would be 138, leaving Lincoln-Way winner by a large margin.

Marion Catholic High of Chicago Heights was third in Class A last Saturday with 77 points and Crete-Monee fourth with 70. Stagg High School, in Dist.

230, finished in seventh place with a score of 46.

The Class AA list in the solos and ensembles was led by Joliet Central with 138 points; Oak Lawn was second with 120 and Lyons third with 116. Sandburg wound up in 12th place with 43 points.

There were 12 Class A and 20 Class AA in the solo and ensemble contests. These covered vocal as well as instrumental entries and from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. last Saturday Lincoln-Way high school was one continuous roll of sound.

There were 960 contestants and in addition to them the contests drew more than 1,000 visitors.

In the solos, instrumental and vocal, superior ratings were awarded the following Lincoln-Way students:

Jennifer Otto, Frankfort, oboe; Betty Walker, Frankfort, bassoon; Nathan Roesner, Mokena, alto saxophone; Robert Bakelaar, New Lenox, cornet; Stephen Moore, New Lenox, French horn; Arnold Gregory, New Lenox, trombone; Dean Minuth and Dan Brown, both of New Lenox, snare drums.

Winning superior ratings in the ensembles, instrumental and voice, from Lincoln-Way were: Flute trio; brass quintet; woodwind quintet; woodwind choir (9 to 16 participants); drum duet; saxophone quartet; trombone trio; miscellaneous drum ensemble; percussion choir; vocal duet; girls single ensemble; two girls double ensembles; two mixed double ensembles, two madrigal groups; boys single ensemble and mixed single ensemble.

A superior rating in Saturday's contest was worth six points in the ensembles and two points in the solos. An excellent was worth three points in the ensembles and one point in the solos.

In the contest April 15, a superior rating for band is 20 points and the same number for a mixed chorus; 16 points for a boys chorus and 16 points for a girls chorus.

Lincoln-Way will be represented in all four categories and if it gets a superior in each would pile up a total of 78 points, which would be added to the 174 it acquired last Saturday.

Class A schools have populations between 550 and 1,500. Schools with more than 1,500 students are Class AA.

Gas room heaters make sense.

Because they turn basements, added rooms, and breezeways into cozy, livable areas
—give you more room for family fun.
(Great for garages, too, 'cause they help cars start in cold weather.)

Because they're thermostatically controlled, so you can regulate the room temperature to fit the activity, whether it's practicing ballet or painting, studying, or just plain relaxing.

Because they're so attractively designed and finished, they give an extra touch of elegance to room decor. And because they're dependable, easily installed on any outside wall, come in sizes to fit any heating need, and cost far less to operate than other types of room heaters.

heaters make sense, call our nearest

Believes Dog Was Stolen

Police of Mokena, Frank-been asked to watch for a Labrador retriever pup, with a pale lemon-yellow coat-- almost white--that the owner believes to have been picked up.

The owner, Mrs. Gordon
Holleman, Kluth Drive, Mo-

England. It arrived at O'Hare Field just after that port opened following the big snow in January and is now five months old. It stands about 15 to 18 inches at the find any trace of the animal, which Mrs. Holleman says is an exceptionally fine and valuable representative of the breed.

Illness Is Fatal To Margaret Hostert

Funeral services were held on Saturday, March 4, for Miss Margaret Hostert, 75, of Highland Av., Orland Park.

Born on a farm in Orland Township, May 20, 1891, she had resided at the family home on 143rd, St. all her life until seven years ago, when the family moved to their new home on Highland Av.

Miss Hostert died Tuesday, Feb. 28 at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet, following a brief illness.

She was a member of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Michael Church.

Surviving are two brothers, William and Frank of Highland Ave., and a sister, Mary A. Reaver of Lockport.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Peter and Mary and a brother John.

Removal was to the Schmaedeke Funeral Home, Orland Park, to St. Michael Church for a Requiem Mass read at 10:00 a.m. by the Rev. Frank Coyle, on Saturday, March 4.

Interment was in St. Michael Cemetery, Orland Park.

Finish School Safety Survey At Frankfort

The architectural firm employed by the Frankfort Grade School Board to survey the old school in compliance with the Health and Safety Code provided the board with a preliminary report and drawings at its last meeting. It is estimated that the cost of making repairs and changes to bring the building up to code requirements will cost about $16,000.

There is nothing seriously wrong with the building, according to Norton and Hall, the architects, of Chicago Heights, and it can be put in proper condition to meet the deadline of 1970.

The board is concerned now with its heating plant. It has been costing several hundreds of dollars a year to keep it up, it was said, and the time has come when replacement is the next step. The architects said the furnace was OK from a safety standpoint but was worn out.

Firemen's Auxiliary will take on the women members of the school staff in volleyball.

Faculty members don't care what equipment the firemen bring to aid them with their game but say that if ladders are a part of it they will demand equal use of same, especially if the game turns out to be basketball.

Play is to begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained from any firemen or at the school office. The price for an adult is $1, for a student 50 cents. Yrs truly, Jefferson P. Throttlebottom.

P.S. I find out from the school board that the game between the faculty and firemen will be basketball. I think the public should be informed of this because otherwise those at the game may not recognize it. J.P.T.

Mokena FD Cagers To Play Pedagogos Tomorrow Night

Dear Boss:

Granted that it is a long time until Christmas, looking forward that is, but if you will just look back it really hasn't been so long ago, so loosen up your space for the sake of the Mokena Volunteer Fire Department which stands to garner some dollars tomorrow night if enough people turn out at Willowcrest School for the big game.

School Supt. Jim Ennis announces that the undefeated faculty heavyweight team, with an 0 and 0 record for the season, will meet a team made up of firemen which also has been unbeaten.

He neglects to say what will be played and it really makes no difference what kind of a ball is used, if any, as the players will only be interested in getting on with the game.

As a curtain raiser members of the Women's BASKETBALL TEAM that will represent the Mokena Fire Department is the game tomorrow night against the unbeaten male faculty members of the Mokena Grade School. The firemen also boast a perfect record. While neither team has lost a game this season neither have they won one. In the photo Fire Chief Robert Rust is holding a basketball, an object of curiosity to both teams.

Call Assembly To Explain College Loans At Sandburg

The Carl Sandburg High School Senior class of 1967 and the Student Council will present a public relations assembly on March 17 to present facts and figures on the Carl Sandburg PTA College Loan Fund.

Since the inception of the PTA College Loan Fund in 1957, over $14,000 has been loaned to Carl Sandburg graduates. This past year, fifteen loans were granted total of $3,000. Some of these loans have been repaid - some have been extended while the borrower fulfills an obligation to the armed forces. The loans have proved invaluable in keeping 34 Sandburg graduates in college.

"Tuition isn't my problem - it's the room, board and supplies."

"My teaching career is well underway now, and I am very grateful to the Fund for making this possible."

"It will be difficult, if not impossible for me to continue in school without additional funds."

"The college depletes one financially, it does not leave one without high spirits."

These are some of the comments from those having loans.

Many individuals, clubs, elementary school P.T.A.'s and other community organizations contribute to the College Loan Fund. The Carl Sandburg PTA devotes its major fund raising activities to this part of their program. Eighty loans have been made, in varying amounts from $50 to $200, the maximum loan being $200 per semester.

The student obtaining a loan must sign, together with a parent or guardian, a Student Loan Note. Repayment of the principal, together with accrued interest shall be made two years after ceasing to be a full-time student. The loan is interest free until the student is graduated from or leaves school, or not in excess of three years during which the maker is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, after which time interest shall accrue at the rate of 3% per year on the unpaid balance.

Applications for loans may be made thru James Adcock, Guidance Director of Carl Sandburg High School.

Paul Zeman, president of the PTA, Mary Kay Meenan, Student Council president, and Clark Jensen, Senior Class president will speak at the assembly.

Diagram Experiment Causes Stir Among English Teachers

Sandburg High English teacher, William Jacoby, has stirred up a mild storm among U.S. language arts teachers.

It all started when Jacoby offered a $3 prize to any Sandburg student who could diagram the Pledge of Allegiance. Diagramming sentences is an exercise where the student shows the relationship of various words and phrases with a drawing.

Jacoby next had his idea published in the magazine "Scholastic Teacher" which printed their version of the Pledge diagram as an idea for English teachers to try.

"Scholastic Teacher" and its co-magazine "Practical English" both left out the phrase "under God" from their diagrams, altho it was included by Sandburg's winner.

Jacoby reported Monday that he was beginning to receive letters from English teachers in the East and South who noted the missing phrase. He refers them to the editors of "Practical English."

Returns From Medical Mission

American doctors who volunteered to give one month of their vacation time or more to working in areas of the world where medical service is negligible or lacking. The doctors pay their own transportation to the location, then are supplied food and lodging by the location. A majority of the assignments are connected with established foreign missions.

ElGuacio is near San Sebastian, which is located in the mountains of western P.R. The ElGuacio Christian Service Center is directed by the Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church. Its chief function is a medical clinic but the project also has a farm, bamboo needlework craft shops and church. The mission was established by an American minister, Rev. Dodd, in 1946. The populus in the area is made up chiefly of very low income farmers who work in the sugar cane fields. Their standard pay is forty seven cents an hour which provides little for the large families. Housing is meager and sanitation poor both of which contribute to multiple health problems.

Dr. Otto worked with Dr. Mary Woodring, the resident physician, from North Carolina, in the clinic. The facilities of the clinic were quite adequate and supplies available though some of the equipment had been over used and out dated. Many of the patients walked from the hills to the clinic and often sat on the porch sometimes several hours waiting to be seen. Dr. Woodring feels that everyone should be charged, therefore a standard office call is fifty cents or sometimes as much as a dollar. The patients are more apt to follow the doctor's advice and take their medicine, if they have had to pay something. Illnesses seen are much the same as in the states except for more malnutrition due to improper diets and much parasite infection still persists secondary to inadequate sanitation and health habits.

A clinic is also held in one of the neighboring barrios, where no medical service is available, one day a week. Here the two doctors worked in an eight by ten one room shack along the roadside and would see about forty patients in an afternoon. Dr. Woodring would like to establish more of these neighborhood clinics if medical help were available.

Lee Ann Otto, a Junior at Lincoln-Way High School, helped in the Guacio office and kindergarten. Roger, a Sophomore at Lincoln-Way assisted with farm chores, the farm being a dairy herd and crops of bananas, oranges and coffee. Mrs. Otto worked with the craft shop as well as cooking and caring for her family in a one room casa.

The Otto's greatly enjoyed the pleasant Puerto Rican climate and beautiful green foliage and its many types of flowering trees and plants. They not only learned much of the Puerto Rican customs and way of living but also have a better appreciation of the many conveniences and opportunities for we who live in the United States.

Dr. Otto is associated with the Hedges Clinic in Frankfort, Illinois and is a staff member of Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet.

St. Michael Church - 14327 Highland Ave. - Rev. Frank M. Coyle, Pastor - Sunday Mass at 6:45 - 8:00 - 9:15 - 10:30 and 11:45 a.m., 1 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Christ Lutheran congregation of Orland Park will remember Holy Week, the most important week of the entire Christian Church Year, with a series of special worship services.

Holy Week begins on Palm Sunday, March 19. Regular Sunday worship on Palm Sunday will be at 8:15 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the 11:00 worship. On Maundy Thursday of Holy Week a special vespers service at 7:30 p.m. will recall Christ's institution of Holy Communion. The topic for worship on Maundy Thursday will be: "What if Jesus had said, 'After All, I Have Some Pride?'" On Good Friday there will be a solemn vespers at 7:30 p.m. The sermon topic for Good Friday will be: "What if Jesus had said, 'Let's Not Talk About Death?'" The sadness of Good Friday will turn to great joy on Easter Sunday when Christians will celebrate the Feast of Christ's Resurrection.

In addition to the 8:15 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. worship services on Easter Sunday, March 26, there will be a sunrise service at 6:30 a.m. with the celebration of Holy Communion. Following the sunrise service, the young people of the congregation will serve an Easter breakfast in the schoolhouse on West Avenue. The breakfast will be open to all worshippers. A special Sunday School session will be held on Easter at 9:30 a.m. in the cafeteria of Orland Park School. The entire Sunday School will gather together to view the Easter film, "Gates of Glory." Following the Sunday School session all pupils will process with their classes to the church where each child will place one fresh flower upon a large styrofoam cross which will be placed in front of the church for Easter Monday. The students will then remain in church to worship their Resurrected Savior with their parents.

The services and devotions of Holy Week all focus upon one point - the commemoration of those tremendous saving actions by which the Son of God makes redemption and salvation possible for us.

Christ Lutheran congregation warmly invites the Orland community to share with it the worship opportunities of Holy Week 1967. The church is located on the corner of 143rd Street and West Avenue. The Rev. Walter A. Ledogar is Pastor. Telephone: 349-0431.

Through funds provided by the P.T.A., a special assembly program was held March 9 at the Orland Center School and March 10 at the Orland Park School.

The Bohemian glass blowing demonstration was one of the most informative displays held in recent years at either school. The students attention was held with the adaptness of speech and the almost magic-like movements of the manipulation of the heated glass.

Mr. Kober from Lawrence, Kansas left some hand blown glass work at the schools for display. One of the gifts was a multi-colored flower vase made entirely of glass, and two swan-like barometers that predict weather changes.

The silence of the audience was the indication that each youngster would likely like to blow some glass to make some truly beautiful works of art.

Constitution Revision will be the subject of the March unit meetings of the Palos-Orland League of Women Voters. The League believes a constitutional convention is the best way to provide an improved Constitution for Illinois. With the defeat of the proposed revenue amendment, bi-partisan political leaders and the press have started the ball rolling toward such a convention.

Mrs. Lyle Brandt, chairman of the study said the present meetings will serve as a refresher to the members who have previously studied constitution revision and the need for a constitutional convention, and the discussion will include consideration of the areas of the constitution that need to be revamped.

Our present constitution, written in 1870, with its restrictions, its inadequacies and its limitations prevents our operating a modern state government for a twentieth century society and needs complete rewriting and revitalizing.

Mrs. Brandt's committees for this presentation include: Mrs. Thomas Schoenecker, Mrs. Claude Sibley, Mrs. Wayne Meagher, Mrs. Margaret Loebe and Mrs. Anthony Zakaras.

The Monday evening meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m., March 20 at the home of Mrs. Richard Miller, 12718 S. 82 Ct., Palos Park, and the Tuesday morning meeting at 9:30, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Claude Sibley, 12042 Harold, Palos Heights. Guests are welcome.

The Carl Sandburg Eagle Booster Club President, Ted Pnazeck cordially invites the members of the community to attend their "Spring Sportacular" program on Tuesday, March 21, at 8:00 p.m. at the high school, 133rd and LaGrange Road.

Coaches Cliff Eade and Charles Harnish, baseball; Larry Henson, Tennis; Charles Zboray, golf; and Robert Gadt, Wayne Lunak, John Stolt and Pete Jensen, track; will discuss the various sports and give tips on how to be a better athlete.

After presentation of this program which will be going on simultaneously, refreshments will be served.

Hosts for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lucas and Mr. Glenn Aronson.

At a meeting of the Palos-Orland-Worth Ministerial Association on March 2, 1967, the following motions were unanimously passed:

1. That the Palos-Orland-Worth Ministerial Association endorse and support the building of Woodlawn General Hospital in Palos Heights and Mt. St. Joseph Hospital in Palos Park.

2. That the Palos-Orland-Worth Ministerial Association endorse and encourage the endeavors of the Family Service of Southwest Cook County in their program of family counseling.

Spray Containers Dangerous, Warns Health Officer

A warning was issued recently by Dr. John B. Hall, Director of the Cook County Department of Public Health on potential hazards in the use and disposal of spray cans.

"While spray cans have brought advances in the ease of using many products, they also have brought possible dangers," he said.

Some of the hazards outlined by Dr. Hall included injuries, sometimes permanent, to the eyes and other parts of the body, absorption of harmful chemicals thru the skin, inhalation of toxic substances into the lungs and the risk of explosion of the aerosol container under certain conditions.

He described a spray can as a gastight container filled with a product and a propellant gas under high pressure, and equipped with a dispensing valve. When the valve is operated, such as by depressing a button on the container, the pressure of the propellant forces the products thru the valve. Altho there are various types of propellants, all have the same purpose, which is to blast the product into a spray of very fine particles.

He warned that damage to the eyes can result both from chemical irritation by the particular product or propellant, and from the force of the spray. This force is considerable near the dispensing valve, and accounts for a great many eye injuries. Both types of injury frequently occur with hair sprays and air fresheners because these products are sprayed approximately at eye - level.

Dr. Hall urged that the public follow a few basic suggestions for safe use of spray cans:

1. Do not store aerosol containers in sunlight or near heat sources.
2. Do not store in confined areas.
3. Do not store within the reach of children.
4. Read and follow caution statement on every aerosol container.
5. Use spray cans in well-ventilated areas.
6. Move quickly away from, instead of into, area sprayed. Try to avoid breathing any spray.
7. Wash hands and exposed skin immediately after spraying with chemicals.

8. Before discarding containers, exhaust pressure by holding down the operating valve.

9. Do not puncture or incinerate spray cans.

10. Place used spray cans in proper receptacle for pick-up by local waste disposal agency.

Dr. Hall concluded by saying, "The constantly growing list of products packaged in spray cans promises greater convenience and efficiency for our society. Using these products with common sense and an awareness of the necessary precautions will allow you to enjoy their advantages while avoiding needless injury to yourself and others."

Well as I said last week that I would continue the story about the lost horse as the information was passed along to me - here it is. As your remember, Mr. George Adkins of 187th Street and Route 45 and myself tried to catch the horse for about two hours and finally gave up after an additional hand was given by Mr. Roy Newton (Mokena Police Chief). We decided that we would chase him out of the area if we continued the chase in the dark so we put off looking any further until daylight. Early in the morning he was located and caught by Mr. Adkins, only to get loose once more. He was again caught and this time he was put in an enclosure where he remains today.

Soil Stewardship

Preparations for Soil Stewardship Week, April 30-May 7, 1967 are underway by the Will County Soil and Water Conservation District. The theme of this year's program is "3/4 of Our Land", stressing the importance of man's recognition of his responsibility under God to protect and use wisely His precious gifts of soil and water. The Conservation District is fortunate to be able to announce that with the financial assistance of local banks, materials are again available free of charge to all churches. In addition to program inserts, booklets and a 15 minute color-sound film may be obtained.

The district has annually sponsored Soil Stewardship Week since 1946. In America, the soil stewardship observance has always traced its origins to the Rogation Days, a custom which began more than 1,500 years ago in the neighborhood of Vienne, France. These days were set aside to give thanks to the Creator for the priceless gifts of air, soil, water and sunshine. Throughout parts of the south, earlier in this century, churches and their congregations began to set aside the fifth Sunday after Easter as Soil and Soul Sunday.

Subsequently this became Soil Stewardship Sunday, when in 1946, the publishers of Farm and Ranch magazine suggested to religious leaders that one Sunday of each year remind their congregations of man's duty to be a good steward of land.

The response of clergymen was so warm and widespread that observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday spread rapidly thruout the nation. In 1954, the publishers of the magazine offered to relinquish their limited sponsorship of Soil Stewardship Sunday to the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts. The Association accepted and undertook to encourage a nation-wide observance -- a mission to which it has dedicated itself ever since. In 1956, recognizing possible conflicts with the observance of Rural Life Sunday, Soil Stewardship Sunday was changed to Soil Stewardship Week -- beginning with the fifth Sunday after Easter and continuing thru the sixth.

Talk Of Airport In Homer Twp. Stirs Residents

Announcement last week that a portion of Homer Township has been suggested as a site for an international type of airport, similar to O'Hare, has caused a stir in the area and an expression of opinion pro and con.

Reports from Homer itself run mostly to opposition to the proposal. The chief objection appears to be based on the noise of jets taking off and coming in for landings; possible crashes; interference with television reception; removal of at least one school from its present site and closing of roads. Some, however, dispute the assertion that the jets would interfere with T.V.

There are numerous persons in Homer, it was reported, who are writing Congressman Leslie Arends and Senators Dirksen and Percy, opposing the idea.

The Joliet Regional Chamber of Commerce is backing the proposal and is lining up political support at Washington.

At a meeting held in Homer Township Monday night, called by those opposing location of an airport there, approximately a thousand persons turned up at the town hall, the dimensions of which were never intended for a crowd of that size. The meeting was then moved to Lockport Central High School. Much opposition to the proposal was expressed but a representative of the Joliet Regional Chamber of Commerce talked favorably about the project, repeating what had been said last week at a public meeting at Joliet and reiterated later at a press conference. While it appears there are more Homer residents against the proposal than for it there are many who believe it would be a fine thing and some expressed satisfaction with the project as denoting progress by Will County. Whether the Will County supervisors would vote the money and whether that much money would be available to cover the local share of the expense of such an airport is a question that has caused some speculation.

It was said that the federal government would put up 75 per cent of the cost with the state and local governments putting up the remainder. Some claim that such a project is a luxury that Will County cannot afford to buy.

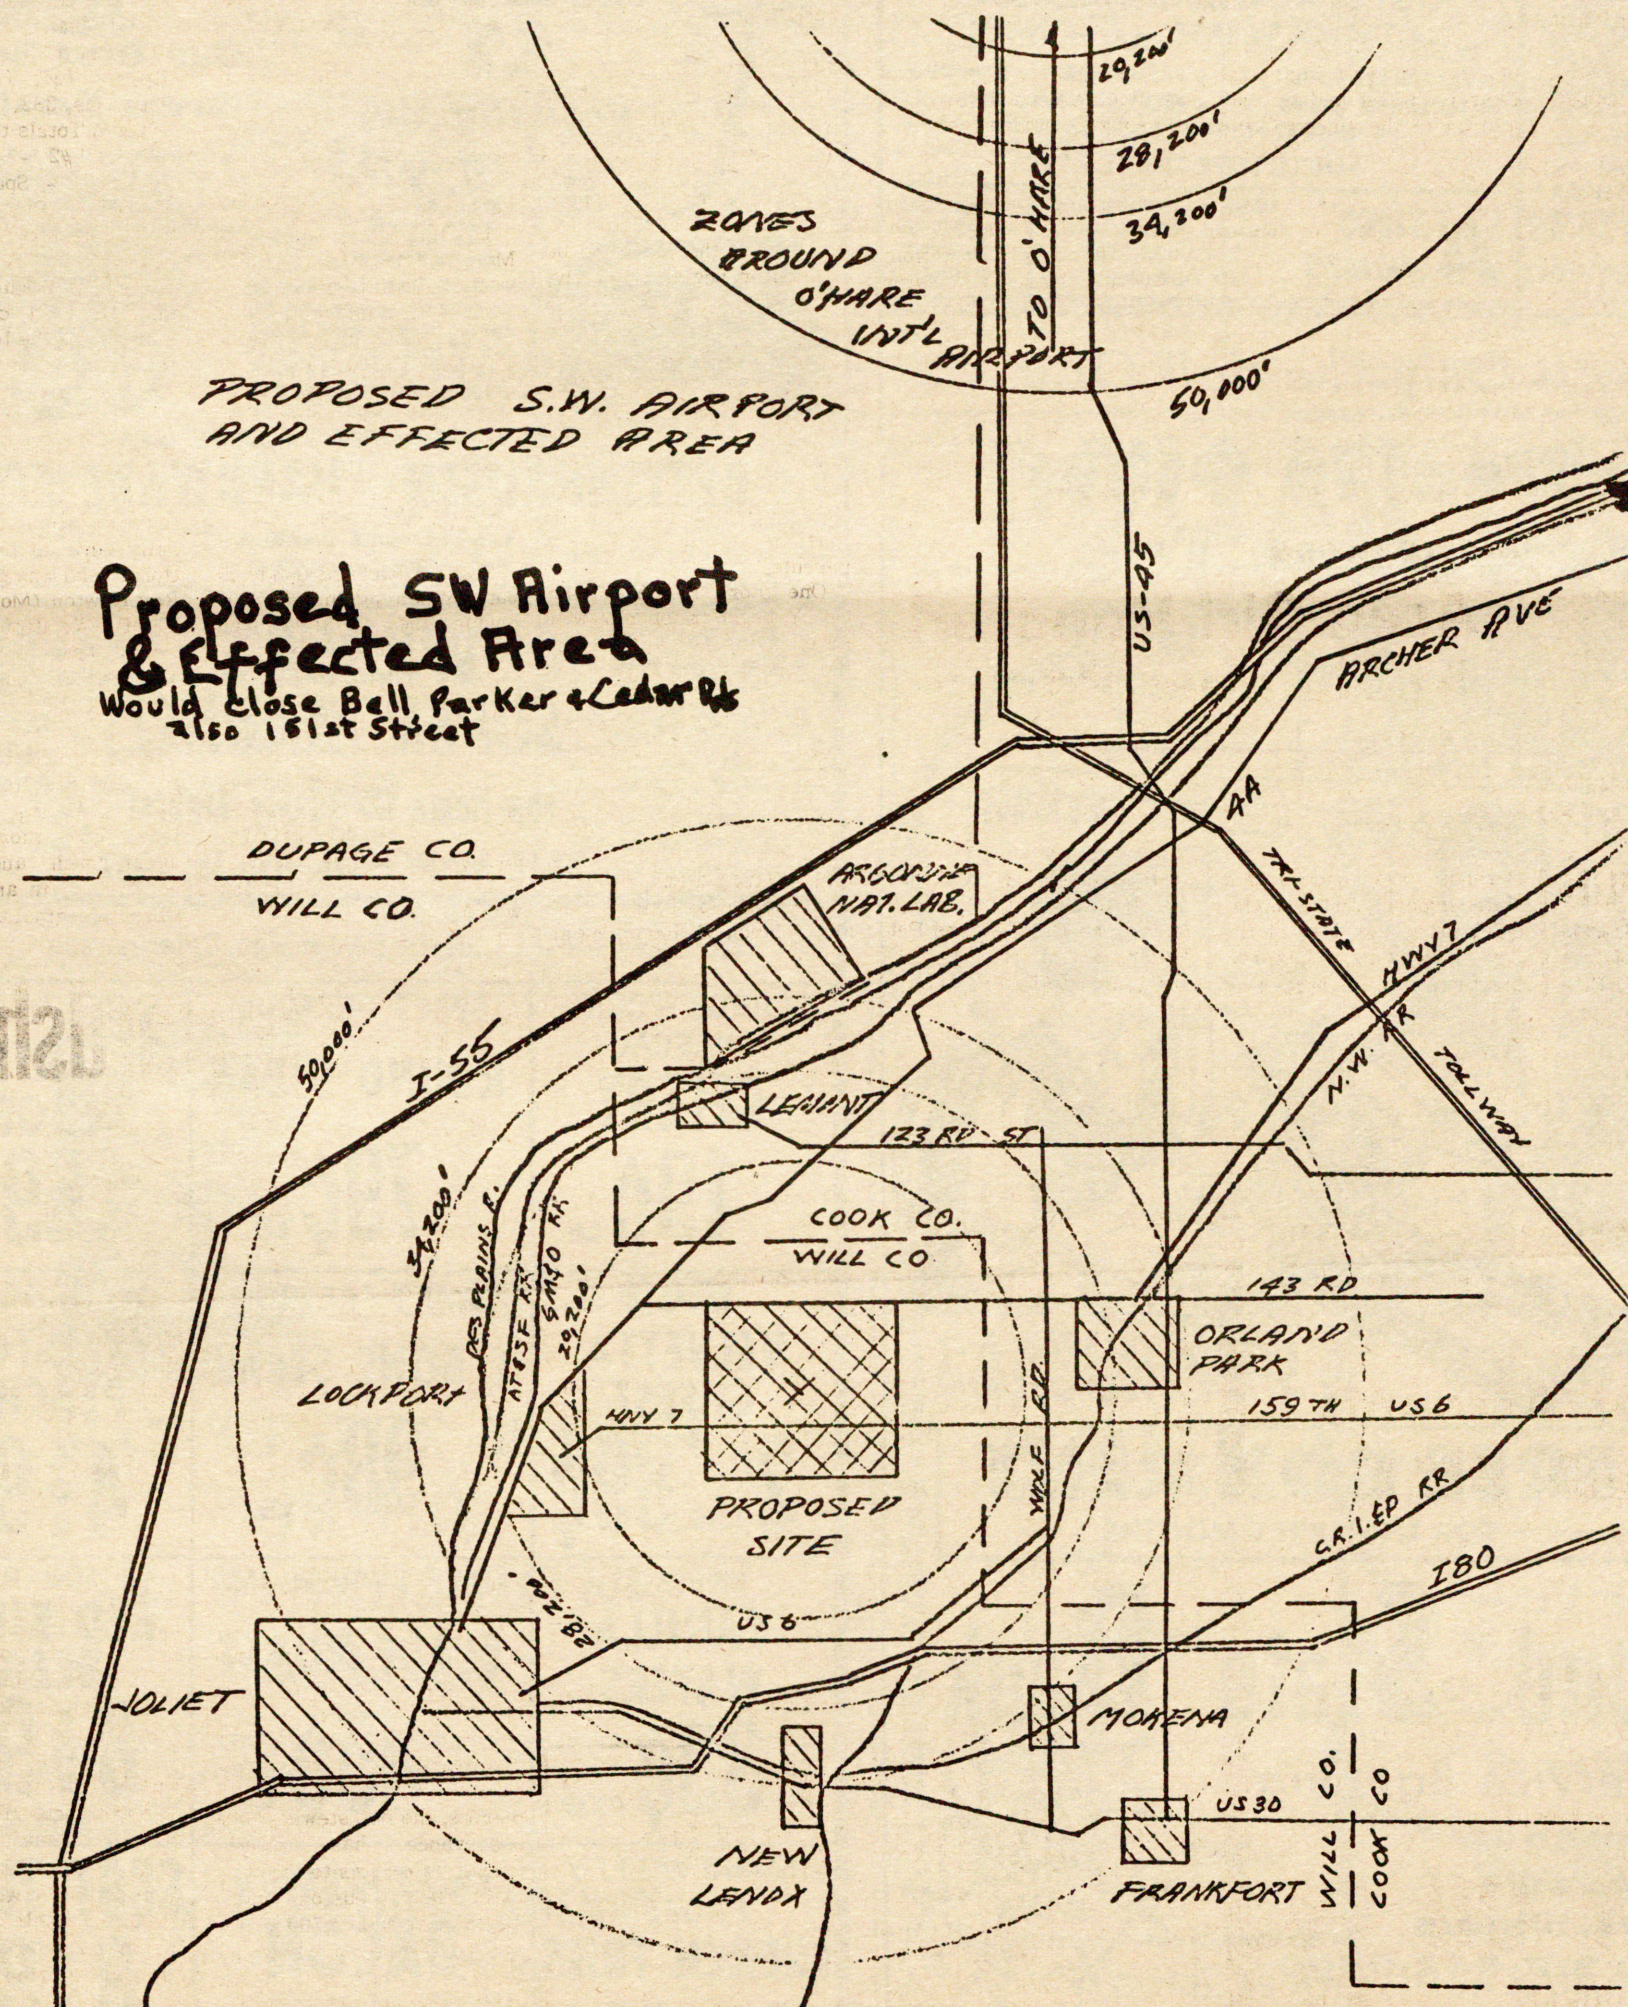

The map in the adjoining columns was drawn by Mayor Erick Book of Mokena who was interested in seeing what area would be effected. The proposal is to utilize some 10,000 or 15,000 acres of land, a portion of which would be designated for industrial use. There are 23,040 acres in the entire township it was said -- 36 square miles.

From the map it would appear that Bell, Parker and Cedar roads and 151st Sts. would be closed, and unless Ill. 7 (159th St.) is made a boundary of the airport, as apparently 143rd St. would be, it was believed that would be closed too.

District 33-C (Homer School) would have to be moved, it was said.

One reason given for proposing Homer as an airport site is that two long ridges give pilots a bearing, even in fog it was said. These ridges run up into Cook County too, it was pointed out, and many believe that if Cook County wants the airport it has enough political influence to get it.

Austrian Student Hopes To Sing In Sandburg Choir

BY DEBBIE WHITTLE

A second soprano from "Sound of Music" country hopes to join the Carl Sandburg High School choir this year. She is Austrian exchange student Christa Murringer (pronounced Moor'-ting-er), who is living at the home of the Rev. Paul Lundell Palos Park, and going to school here.

Christa spent her first semester at MacArthur High School in Decatur where she sang in the choir. She speaks fluent English with almost no accent, thanks to eight years of English in her school in Vienna.

Austrian schools are not co-educational, Christa said. They have rigid schedules and no elective subjects. Latin is required. Christa enjoys U.S. schools and extra-curricular activities.

The exchangee has already finished school and is spending a year here mainly for her own enrichment. After her year abroad, she will return home and apply for entrance to the University of Vienna to get a degree in interpreting.

Christa is a guest of the International Christian Youth Exchange (ICYE), which is sponsoring 19 such exchanges this year in the Midwest. Oak Lawn High School also has one visitor. Rev. Lundell said there were plans for another Sandburg exchange next year.

Lundell's Presbyterian Church of Palos Park also is sponsoring the visitor.

ICYE has brought two Germans, Gottfried Mosig and Dieter Kind, and a Swiss girl, Ursula Steinlin, to Sandburg in past years. Alumni Connie Cummings, '64, Robin Peterson, '65, and Gloria Chord, '65, were sent abroad by ICYE.

NI-Gas Earnings, Sales Revenues, Customers, Up

New highs in earnings, revenues, sales and customer levels were attained by Northern Illinois Gas Company in 1966.

The records are detailed by Marvin Chandler, NI-Gas chairman and president, in the utility's annual report now being mailed to 102,000 stockholders.

Therm sales were up 16 percent; revenues rose by 10 percent to $218,900,000; and the number of customers increased by 36,000 bringing the year-end customer total to 944,000.

Chandler said that in selling over three billion therms of natural gas, NI-Gas provided almost twice as much energy as did all the electric companies in Illinois combined.

NI-Gas earnings per share also climbed. In 1966, they equalled $2.33 a share, compared with $2.23 for 1965.

By adding 75 more communities to its lines -- 53 in the company's new Mississippi River district -- NI-Gas is now serving every community in its 16,000 square mile service territory that has a population of more than about 500.

This--and other expansion and improvement of its properties--cost NI-Gas over $50 million in 1966.

In order to keep up with the growing demand for its product, the utility began purchasing natural gas from a fourth pipeline supplier in 1966, and boosted its daily gas supply purchases by the end of the year to 976 million cubic feet a day.

Because more than 80 percent of its customers now use gas for home heating; because sales of both gas air conditioning and total energy systems are rising steadily; and because industrial sales are booming (up more than 30 percent in 1966), NI-Gas is planning to increase its gas purchases by a minimum of 50 million cubic feet a day later this year.

One of the most exciting events reported was the utility's joining over 20 major gas companies to form TARGET, an organization that is launching a $20 million research program to give new impetus to the development of a natural gas-powered fuel cell.

Chandler also reported that the investor-owned utility paid taxes of more than $40 million during 1966, or about $110,500 every day of the year.

In concluding his report to NI-Gas stockholders, Chandler said the utility is in a "very strong position for meeting all the challenging tasks that a growing company in a growing territory must face."

Wives Not Dependents, Says IR Boss

For income tax purposes, a wife is never a dependent of her husband. The exemption allowed for her is based upon the marital relationship, not on dependency, according to E.C. Coyle, Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for Northern Illinois.

A husband may claim his wife's exemption on his separate return only if she has no income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer. Husbands and wives may file joint returns even though one of them has no income.

Mr. Coyle said that if the wife had income in any amount, the husband can claim his wife's exemption only by filing a joint return with her. On a joint return, income and deductions of both husband and wife must be included, and both must sign the return.

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham will be shown in Chicago Heights on March 31-April 3 in the Lincoln-Dixie theatre. With the accent on youth, this feature film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen age crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard hitting, bold approach to our social problems.

Here is a film which dates to be different which will stir the heart and mind. Having seen "The Restless Ones" you will never be the same. As one reviewer said, Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, but an answer from beyond us. This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teenage situation clearly and without cloying. Swift moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church. The screen writer, James Collier, has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teen agers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World-Wide pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a breakthrough in the restless ones.

Correct Lineup Of Community Chest Members

In a recent story concerning formation of the Orland Township Community Chest it was inadvertently stated that one of the bodies on the list of beneficiaries was Family Planning. It should have been the West Suburban Homemakers of the Child and Welfare Service.

The other members are: Family Counseling Service, Southwest YMCA, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H clubs and the Orland Youth Association.

The local directors are in the process of arriving at budgetary figures to be submitted to the Chicago Metropolitan Community Chest. If the Metropolitan Chest hits its quota the dependent organizations realize the amount of their request.

It is estimated the population of the township is about 12,000 and the metropolitan chest body is likely to expect the Orland Township to raise in campaign for funds.

FIRST GRADE STUDENTS at Schmuhl school, New Lenox, are pictured with their teacher, Mrs. Lillian Kahl, who is in the process of teaching them the approach to reading. Before coming to New Lenox, Mrs. Kahl had experience conducting individualized reading programs in Minnesota, Michigan and in the Armed Forces Schools in Japan and Germany.

Schmuhl 1st Graders Learn Reading By Writing

Under the direction of Lillian Kahl, the first graders at Schmuhl School have been involved in a language arts approach to reading this year. Before coming to New Lenox to teach, Mrs. Kahl had experience conducting individualized reading programs in Minnesota, Michigan and in the Armed Forces Schools in Japan and Germany.

Traditionally, in first reading the author of a given textbook writes the words he feels a beginning reader should learn. In the language arts approach the child learns words from his own experiences. Throughout the reading readiness period in first grade the first graders at Schmuhl were formulating books of experience stories. These books were used as beginning reading books. Because the youngsters saw their own words being written as they dictated them and then used them as reading material, they very early in the year became interested in writing stories. They discovered that writing is fun because it turns into reading.

As the students developed a service vocabulary in reading they began to discover they could read easy first grade books. Each child chooses his own reading book and at this time an individualized reading program has developed with each child reading on his own reading level.

An emphasis on writing stories is continued throughout the year. Phonetic skills are developed and youngsters apply these skills in writing. More importance is placed upon what a child is thinking at the first grade level than is placed on the mechanics of writing. Therefore, spelling and punctuation in the following stories is left in its original form.

Several days prior to the writing of the Lincoln and Washington stories, the youngsters had listened to many stories and poems about the lives of these two great men. These stories written from factual material indicate how children understand the things they hear, what they consider important enough to remember, and how well they fill in with their own ideas when they do not remember.

And here are some of the stories as they were written:

Wen Lincoln was a little boy he was named Honest Abe. He was good to every one and he talk ulot he listind to uthr peple. He lived in Kentucky. One nite his father came home. We are going to move to Indiana. Wen they were there Honest Abe's momy Died. Lincoln became are president. Then they had the civil War. One day Lincoln saw a pig stuc in the fence and he saved it. One day Lincoln went to a moove. And John Booth eil him wen he was 52.

Once Lincoln was borned. He safd his dog. Then he safd his friend in the water. He took his friend to his house. Then he safd a pig. He went to a party. He went to a theater. Then he got chot. He got up and run.

Honest Abe Lived in a log Cabin. Then whe He groo up He leared how to be a President. He got shot in his heart his wife was 5 ft. 3 she cooked hard for Them.

One day Abraham was going to the store to get a book. He got a book about Washington. He read and looked in it. He put it on the flore. It snowed that nite. It rond the book. He brogt it back to the store. He wanted to pay for it. So he chopped wood for the store man. And he payed for the book. And he was happy. He read in the book some more. He finished the book. He read it over and over. then he new the story.

He was vary brave Bcus He has muslss Bcus He excsrised when He grows up. He has sum equipment for war. He was brave and He told the trooth.

George went out sid to get his horse. wen he get the horse he want riding in to the woods wan, he want in to the woods he want fishing.

then he kaught a fish. then he brat it hom. wan he brot it hom he cooket the fish in tll they were rit. the end.

Wan George was a litle boy he liked to swim. And he liked to chase the rabbits over the hills. Wan he was older. He was a surveyor. Then He b-cam a president. He was a good president. He did good things. He was a general. He was in a Revolutionary-War. His men wun the War.

Our first president was George Washington. He chased rabbits over The hills. When The bugles blue He ran to the Revolutionary War. He Fought With The English.

One day George Washington went to school he did not like school any more. he came home and said to his Mother I do not like school any more said George Washington his Mother said to him you have to go to school or you can not learn how to read. George Washingtons birthday was coming up and his Mother and father wanted to get him something his Mother got him a cherrie tree and his father got him a hatchet. Group Favors Increase

By Maurice Scott
(Exec. Sec. Illinois Taxpayers Federation)

A Motor Fuel Tax increase? How much is it going to be? Those were two of the questions asked many times around the legislative halls following the release of the Wilbur Smith and Associates report this week to the Highway Study Commission, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois said today. This report recommends, among other things, a 3-cent a gallon increase in the State "gas tax," making it 8 cents.

While a good case can be made for some increase in the Motor Fuel Tax, the Taxpayers' Federation believes that the facts warrant a 1 cent per gallon tax increase, and all of the receipts from such 1 cent increase should go to the State for the next two years to maintain and build highways under its jurisdiction. The present formula splits up the Motor Fuel Tax receipts, after deducting certain administrative costs, as follows: 35% to the State, 32% to municipalities, 12% to down-state counties, 11% to Cook County, and 10% to township and road districts.

A 1-cent increase, with the increased revenues going to the State, would yield approximately $76 million for the biennial period, July 1, 1967 to July 1, 1969. This would mean to the State about the same amount of money as a 3-cent increase (from 5 to 8 cents), with the revenues from the 3-cent increase being shared under the present formula. A 3-cent increase, shared under the present formula, would yield the State an additional $79.8 million ($76 million x 3 x 35%).

What about the local governments, namely the counties, municipalities and road districts? They should continue to share in the receipts from the 5-cent tax as they have since 1951. Furthermore, the statutes should be eased so that such local governments could spend the so-called "surpluses" that they have credited to them. As of Feb. 6, 1967, municipalities had a "surplus," or an allotment credited to them to spend, of $46,312,148; counties, $38,093,645; townships and road districts, $18,494,614. It seems a little foolish for municipalities, for example, to have chuck holes in arterial and adjacent streets while a balance in the Motor Fuel Tax reposes in the State Treasury after the name "municipalities." The same can be said for counties and townships.

A 1 cent increase, all to the state for two years, plus a reasonable increase in the various license fees, would yield the state a good sum for road building and maintenance purposes. The burden of proof would then shift to the state to definitely establish how many dollars worth of roads it can reasonably build and maintain during the period, July 1, 1967 to July 1, 1969.
